- .10 Officers shall not take action in any matter which is not subject to criminal jurisdiction except to prevent the violation of a law.
- .11 Officers shall neither participate in nor suggest a compromise between persons where one of those persons has an interest in or has suffered damage or jeopardy as a result of an alleged offense.
- .12 This rule is not intended to prevent an Officer from advising a person that he may have a civil remedy which may require the institution of a civil suit.
