

Readiness for Education At a Distance Indicator

READI - Readiness for Education at a Distance Indicator is a web-based, diagnostic tool that gives students immediate feedback about their strengths and weaknesses as they relate to online learning.

The assessment takes about 25-30 minutes to complete but if you do have the capability to log out and resume at a later date if you are unable to complete it the first time through.

READI includes five major assessment components that measure:

- Reading comprehension
- Technical competency
- Individual attributes
- Preferred learning styles
- Typing speed and accuracy

Benefits to You

You may be hesitant to study at a distance for fear that you might not do well. READI helps you to recognize your strengths and provides resources to strengthen your weaknesses.

Other Features

Reporting - Each potential student who takes READI receives immediate feedback in the form of an individualized report that shows his/her score for each of the various READI components.

Solutions - If the instrument determines that a user is not ready to study at a distance, links to potential remediation resources are provided.
