

COLLEGE STUDENT CENTER

The Palo Alto College Student Center offers opportunities for socializing and relaxation. A TV area is available for student viewing. The bookstore, cafeteria, student activities, Veterans Affairs, student government, health center, bursar's office, campus security, automatic teller machine and vending machines are located in the Student Center are accessible for student use. For more information or a copy of activities scheduled, contact the Student Activities Office.

BOOKSTORE

The College bookstore operates as a service to students, faculty, and staff. Textbooks, school and office supplies, and course-related materials are provided along with gift items, greeting cards, paperbacks, and other items. Operating hours are posted each semester.

BURSAR'S OFFICE

The Bursar's Office receives tuition payments, vehicle permit fees and delinquent fees. It also distributes students' payroll, grant, and scholarship checks. The Bursar's Office does not cash students' personal or Financial Aid checks.

CAFETERIA

Breakfast, lunch, and snacks are available to the campus community. Hours of operation are posted each semester. Special hours are followed during registration and holiday periods.

HEALTH CENTER

The College maintains a Campus Health Center that provides limited health-related services. Services such as first aid, referrals to community health agencies, over the counter medications and health counseling are provided by the college nurse.

The staff is concerned with the total health needs of the college community. They work to promote wellness and prevention through a variety of health awareness activities.

The Health Center can provide information on the following: immunizations, medical and dental treatment referrals, and student insurance. The Health Center also maintains resource materials such as brochures, pamphlets, and other health information that are available to the campus community at no cost.

Accidents incurred on campus should be reported to the Health Center staff as soon as possible.

It is the policy of the Health Center to keep information confidential. For more information, visit the Health Center website at:

http://www.accd.edu/pac/html/Current/services/health_center/health_center.htm