- IV. Instruction will consist of:
Lecture, oral communication activities, presentations, listening, reading, writing, group work.
- V. Course Content:
Italian 1411 is a first semester course for students who have had little or no formal instruction in the Italian language. It is designed to introduce students to the fundamentals of the Italian language and to give them an opportunity to practice listening, speaking reading and writing Italian.
- VI. Learning Outcomes and Performance Objectives with their methods of measurement as used to determine the students' mastery of those outcomes.

Performance objectives:

By the end of the semester, students will be able to understand most spoken Italian at slow or normal pace, and develop skills and strategies for listening comprehension.

- Students will be able to ask and answer questions on a variety in an everyday conversation.
- Students will be able to describe present events.
- Students will be able to use Italian in performing daily routines, such as greeting, making appointments, making phone calls.
- Students will be able to read simple texts in French and will develop skills in reading basic authentic texts.
- Students will write simple sentences and paragraphs on topics related to everyday experiences.
- Students will be able to identify some elements of the French culture.

Method of Measurement

There will be a test at the end of each chapter/unit during the course of the semester and a comprehensive, departmental final exam. The final course grade will be determined based on the grade distribution decided by each instructor. Example grade distribution: Major exams-50%, Quizzes-15% Homework assignments 10%, Departmental Final exam 25%.

A minimum of 15 hours of language lab is required during the term. Students will fulfill the lab requirement by completing the assignments in the workbook and lab manual.

VII. Course requirements and grade computation.

A. College Requirements:

A written, comprehensive final examination, not to exceed two and one-half hours in length, shall be given at the end of each semester for each course at the regularly scheduled time. Any exceptions to these requirements must be approved by the appropriate dean. Other examinations are given at the discretion of the instructor.

A student who must be absent from a final examination should petition that instructor for permission to postpone the examination. A student absent from a final examination without permission is graded "F." Postponed examinations result in a grade of "I." The final exam must be taken within 120 calendar days from the end of the semester or the grade automatically becomes an "F." (San Antonio College Bulletin, Faculty Handbook - January 1995)

B. Departmental Requirement:

Homework: The instructor will assign written homework at the end of each class. If students are unable to attend a class, they still are responsible for completing the assignment and submitting it on the date that it is due.

Punctual Attendance/Participation: It is very important for students come to class on time every day, ask and answer question, participate in all class activities and encourage everyone else to participate.

Excessive Absences: A student absent the equivalent of two weeks of instruction may be dropped from the class by the instructor with a grade of W. Also, a student may be allowed to make up the work only with the instructor's approval. Regardless of circumstances, the student will be held responsible for completion of all course requirements.

Cell Phones: Students must turn off all pagers and cell phones before entering classrooms and computer labs.

Foreign Language students are expected adhere to the individual instructors' syllabus and college regulations.

C. Instructor Requirements: See an instructor's syllabus
