I. Catalog Description: COMM 1316-100, News Photography 1 (3-2-3)

This course teaches the basics of digital news photography. Other than learning how to operate digital camera and processing digital photos, this course will also present the problems and practices of photography for newspapers and magazines. Students will be introduced to the important role of photojournalism in the society and learn how to produce different categories of photojournalism that apply to news reporting through reading, class discussing, and practicing.

II. Pre-requisites, co-requisites and other requirements:

None.

III. Text: 1. Required: National Geographic Photography Field Guide: Secrets to Making Great Pictures, 2nd Ed., by Peter Burian and Bob Caputo, National Geographic, 2003.

2. Recommended: Photojournalism: The Professional's Approach, by Kenneth Kobre, 6th Ed., Focal Press, 2008.

IV. Instruction will consist of: Much of the learning in this course depends on practice photo taking, reading and critiquing course materials. We will survey the course information through class discussions and lab experiences. Learning to meet deadlines and developing the ability to manage time also are part of the course.

V. Course Content: This course emphasizes journalistic communication through photographs. Students will be trained to learn the basics of digital photography and at the same time be introduced to the world of photojournalism by reviewing photographs taken from professional photojournalists locally and from all over the world. Students will also learn the principles and techniques of producing news photographs by working for the college newspaper and magazine as staff photographers. Students will be trained to work under deadline pressure in a variety of basic photojournalistic situations. After taking this course, students should be able to build a portfolio and have a basic ability to critique and produce news photography in a professional manner. Methods of teaching include reading discussion, video and slide presentation, demonstration, news photo critique and guest lectures.

VI. Learning Outcomes and Performance Objectives with their methods of measurement as used to determine the students' mastery of those outcomes.

VII. Course requirements and grade computation:

Course objectives:

News Photography emphasizes communication through photographs. This course presents the practices and problems of photography for news publications. We will focus on taking, editing and processing still photographs for media use. Students will cover campus and off-campus events for the college newspaper, The Ranger. We have entered the digital age; all work will be shot and produced digitally. Students are required to own a basic digital camera (preferably Single Lens Reflex – SLR) to take this class. However, in the beginning of the semester, a very limited number of digital cameras can be checked out to students on an hourly, temporary basis. The department will provide students with more advanced photo equipment for special reporting occasions.

Tests and Grading:

Quizzes	5%	Portfolio	5%
Reading Quizzes	5%	Attendance & class participation	5%
Assignments	35%	Ranger photo assignments	35%
Mid-term Exam.	5%
Final Exam.	5%	Bonus	5%

Description on grading Ranger photo assignments:

You will need to have 7 photos published on the Ranger newspaper or Ranger Online before the last day of class. Each assignment will be graded on your performance and evenly distributed to the 35% of your final grade.

Your Ranger assignments will be evaluated and graded as follows:

Very well done	90 or above
Meet general standard	80-89
Some improvement required	70-79
Marginally acceptable	60-69
Unacceptable	59 or below

Total grade for the course: A = 90-100, B = 80-89.9, C = 70-79.9, D = 60-69.9, F = 59.9 or below

A. College Requirements:

A written, comprehensive final examination, not to exceed three hours in length, shall be given at the end of each semester for each course at the regularly scheduled time. Any exceptions to these requirements must be approved by the appropriate dean. Other examinations are given at the discretion of the instructor.

A student who must be absent from a final examination should petition that instructor for permission to postpone the examination. A student absent without permission from a final examination is graded "F." Postponed examinations result in a grade of "I." The final exam must be taken within 120 calendar days from the end of the semester or the grade automatically becomes an "F." (San Antonio College Bulletin, faculty Handbook - January 1995)

B. Departmental Requirement: A student wishing to withdraw from this class during the semester must process a formal withdrawal through the Office of Admissions and Records. Failure to withdraw formally will result in the assignment of a failing grade (F) for the course. You may drop by going to the Office of Admissions and Records, or you may send me an e-mail requesting that I drop you from the class. If you do the latter, please be sure to type your full name at the bottom of your request. You also may drop by Room 204-a of Loftin Student Center to pick up a drop slip.

The college bulletin allows absences for the equivalent of two weeks of class, but you will be dropped after that number. After the drop date, each absence over six will take three (3) points off your final grade.

C. Instructor Requirements:

Students should prepare to learn to use digital camera and digital photo processing equipments. Student should also prepare to learn basic interview and information-gathering techniques as well as communicate with people as a journalist. Students should also pay extra attention to what a deadline means to a news publication.

VIII. College Policies:

A. San Antonio College does not discriminate on the basis of race, religion, color, national origin, sex, age, or disability with respect to access, employment programs or services.

B. Students are urged not to bring children to either a class or a lab. Minors under the age of twelve (12) must not be left unattended on campus. College Academic Council - April, 1998
