

STUDENT CLUBS & ORGANIZATIONS
INFORMATION & INTEREST FORM
San Antonio College

I am interested in joining _____
Name of Club/Organization

The Office of Student Life has permission to contact me or provide the following personal information to the club/organization indicated above:

Name: _____ Date: _____

Phone Number: _____ E-mail: _____

Note: Please complete on form for each club/organization of interest

(Detach here and provide to the Office of Student Life, LSC 152)

Name of Club/Organization	Mission/Purpose
Affordable Student Housing Association	To promote and work towards the development of affordable student housing.
American Institute of Architecture Students	To foster an appreciation and understanding of the ideas and objectives of the institute, and to emphasize and promote professional, social and fraternal aspects of students activities at SAC.
Amnesty Circle of Action	To promote human rights, to inform the public of human rights violations, and to encourage action within Amnesty International.
Anime Underground	To promote enjoyment of Japanese culture, focusing primarily on animation, advances in computer graphics, and the evaluation of the older releases.
Atheists, Freethinkers and Agnostics	To provide an organization representing non-religious students and encourage civil discussion surrounding faith, reason and science between religious and non-religious students.
Baptist Student Ministries	To promote ministry to persons of the SAC community, leading them toward faith in God, through Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord, guiding them in Christian growth and discipleship and involving them in responsible church membership.
Biology Club	To encourage students to be involved in biology.
Black Student Alliance	To promote academic success, cultural and political awareness as well as unity among the San Antonio College community.
Campus Crusade for Christ	To promote regular opportunities to study and discuss the Bible, worship and pray, all in a group setting which also provides opportunities for fellowship, encouragement, and spiritual development among members.

Catholic Student Center	To proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ within higher education.
Chemistry Club (American Chemical Society)	To enhance opportunity for students at SAC to socialize with fellow members, faculty and other students, as well as to instill a professional pride in chemistry.
Cheshyre Cheese Club	Reward excellence, foster development, and inspire creativity in the social sciences and the humanities.
Chinese Club	To promote the understanding of Chinese language and culture.
Church of Christ Student Center	Objectives: 1) the salvation of souls, 2) spiritual growth, and 3) the development of talents that will enable students to grow into fruitful life in God's service.
Connection Club	To Strengthen the continuing bond between the students and the deaf community.
Film Club	To promote a creative outlet to supplement classes in film, video and other arts.
Gay and Lesbian Assoc.(GALA)	To create a safe and interactive community within SAC for an alternative life style, but not limited to gay and lesbians.
Global Ambassadors Club	To promote peace through understanding, by combining college curriculum with international travel, international communication and service learning
Graphic Arts Club	To help students become aware of graphic art trends in local community and abroad.
International Students Association	For international students to establish both fraternal and cultural relationships among themselves and other international students in San Antonio.
Kinesiology Majors	To promote the field of kinesiology to students and increase their hands-on experiences.
Math Club	To foster an understanding and appreciation towards the subject of Math.
Methodist Student Center	To promote educational and enrichment programs for student development.
Mexican American Engineers and Scientists (MAES)	To increase the number of minority engineering students at SAV, gain information about college transfer, scholarships, internships and club activities.
Mortuary Science Club (Rho Sigma Gamma)	To develop a bond between mortuary science students while continuing to learn and grow as students, funeral directors, embalmers and citizens of our community.
Movimiento Estudiantil Chicano de Aztlan (MEChA)	To promote solidarity, culture awareness and education in the community.
On -Stage-Drama Club	To promote live theatre at San Antonio College through the creation and presentation of theatre productions.
O.V.E.R (One Voice Equality Resounds)	To increase student involvement in college and society. To promote student awareness of multiple cultures and all facets of humanity.
PAH! Club	To enhance leadership amongst SAC deaf students and to educate the SAC community about deaf culture and language.
Peer Educators	To provide students with information on drug addiction, drunk driving and sexual responsibility and other health related issues, through seminars and tabling.
The P.E.O.P.L.E. Club	To develop better understanding and appreciation of the problems of individuals with disabilities, to promote ways that enhance the social advancement of individuals with disabilities.

Phi Theta Kappa (PTK)	To promote scholarship, the development of leadership and service and the cultivation of fellowship among qualified students.
Political Science Club	To promote insight on political theories through discussion and debate.
Psychology Club	To provide an opportunity for psychology students to associate and learn from each other, to provide professional meetings and networking.
Public Administration Club	To promote and enhance careers in public administration and to establish community service projects and helps this community.
Reserve Officer Training Corp (ROTC) Club	To promote and develop leadership and military skills.
SAC SACNAS Chapter	To encourage Students to succeed in the sciences and explore career and job opportunities in the sciences.
San Antonio Education Partnership (SAEP) Club	To increase student involvement in college activities; promote student leadership; develop a working network; promote the advancement and retention of students.
Senior Summer Club	To inform, prepare, and motivate current and prospective students and families to enroll and complete college.
Society of Professional Journalists	Committed to enhancing journalism education, improving the profession, exposing members to the highest principles of journalism, networking with professional journalists and educating the public about the role journalists in preserving a free society.
Speech Club	To compete against two and four year colleges/universities in public speaking and oral interpretation events.
Student Art Guild	To promote student interest in art by visiting museums, galleries and other related activities.
Students In Free Enterprise (SIFE)	Helping people achieve their dreams through free enterprise education.
Table Tennis Club	To promote a healthy life style by developing skills in concentration and hand eye coordination and contribute to the city's well being by volunteering community service.
Teaching Academy Program Peers (TAPP)	To educate community college students about professions education, to provide future educators opportunities to share experiences and learn leadership skills.
Voices for SAC	To creatively explore and raise awareness around issues of sexual health.
Women In Technology	To promote women's education and interest in technology