

Basic Computer Classes

Introduction to Computers:

This course was developed for a person who has little to no previous experience with computers. It is designed to give a basic understanding of computers and how to use them.

Introduction to the Internet:

This course was developed for a person who has little to no previous experience with the internet. It is designed to give a basic understanding of the internet and teach the fundamental skills involved in web use and the basics of e-mail.

Introduction to Microsoft Word:

This course is designed for a person who needs a basic understanding of Microsoft Word and what can be done with it. Students will be introduced to the most common commands and tools used to create, format, and save documents.

Free Sessions are Offered Each Month.

Check out our monthly calendar for day and time!

We can only register 10 participants per session so call today to reserve your seat!!!